

75 Chase Road,
London N14 4QY

You are invited to join us for Lunch and Chavruta study following the Shabbat Service

on

17th November 2018

when we will be studying and discussing

Family and Community

our responsibility towards members of our family and our home communities.

Lunch - join us after the Shabbat service for an informal buffet lunch.

£5 to cover costs

Chavruta study - Chavruta means 'partner' and is a deeply traditional form of Jewish learning where two people explore Jewish texts together. The learning is a dialogue between the participants, which crafts meaning and ownership of the texts. Chavruta is not only an opportunity to increase one's knowledge but should be a transformative experience.

Guided by our facilitator, Jonathan Clarke, you will be led into an exciting learning atmosphere. Meet and study with new friends. We will discuss ideas and thoughts in our chavruta pairs and then come together to exchange our views with others in the groups.

Finally, the whole afternoon will be summed up by our expert facilitator who will have listened to each of the groups during the afternoon.

To book your place OR for more information, email:

Joy Cox - jscthefirst@hotmail.com or

Phyllis Freedman -- dd@sps.uk.com

